Topics at a Glance

Private Wealth Management / Family Office

For any family with $100 million or more in assets, managing those assets can be a full-time job. Ultra-wealthy families typically have dozens of trusts and partnerships, and an array of investments that require oversight and performance reporting. They also need sophisticated cash flow and liquidity management, not to mention extensive tax, estate, and philanthropic planning.
The complexity of performing all these functions can be overwhelming, which is why an increasing number of ultra-high-net-worth families are creating family offices to manage their wealth. We will also look into it, topics to be highlighted are as follows:

How to decide what your Family Office should outsource

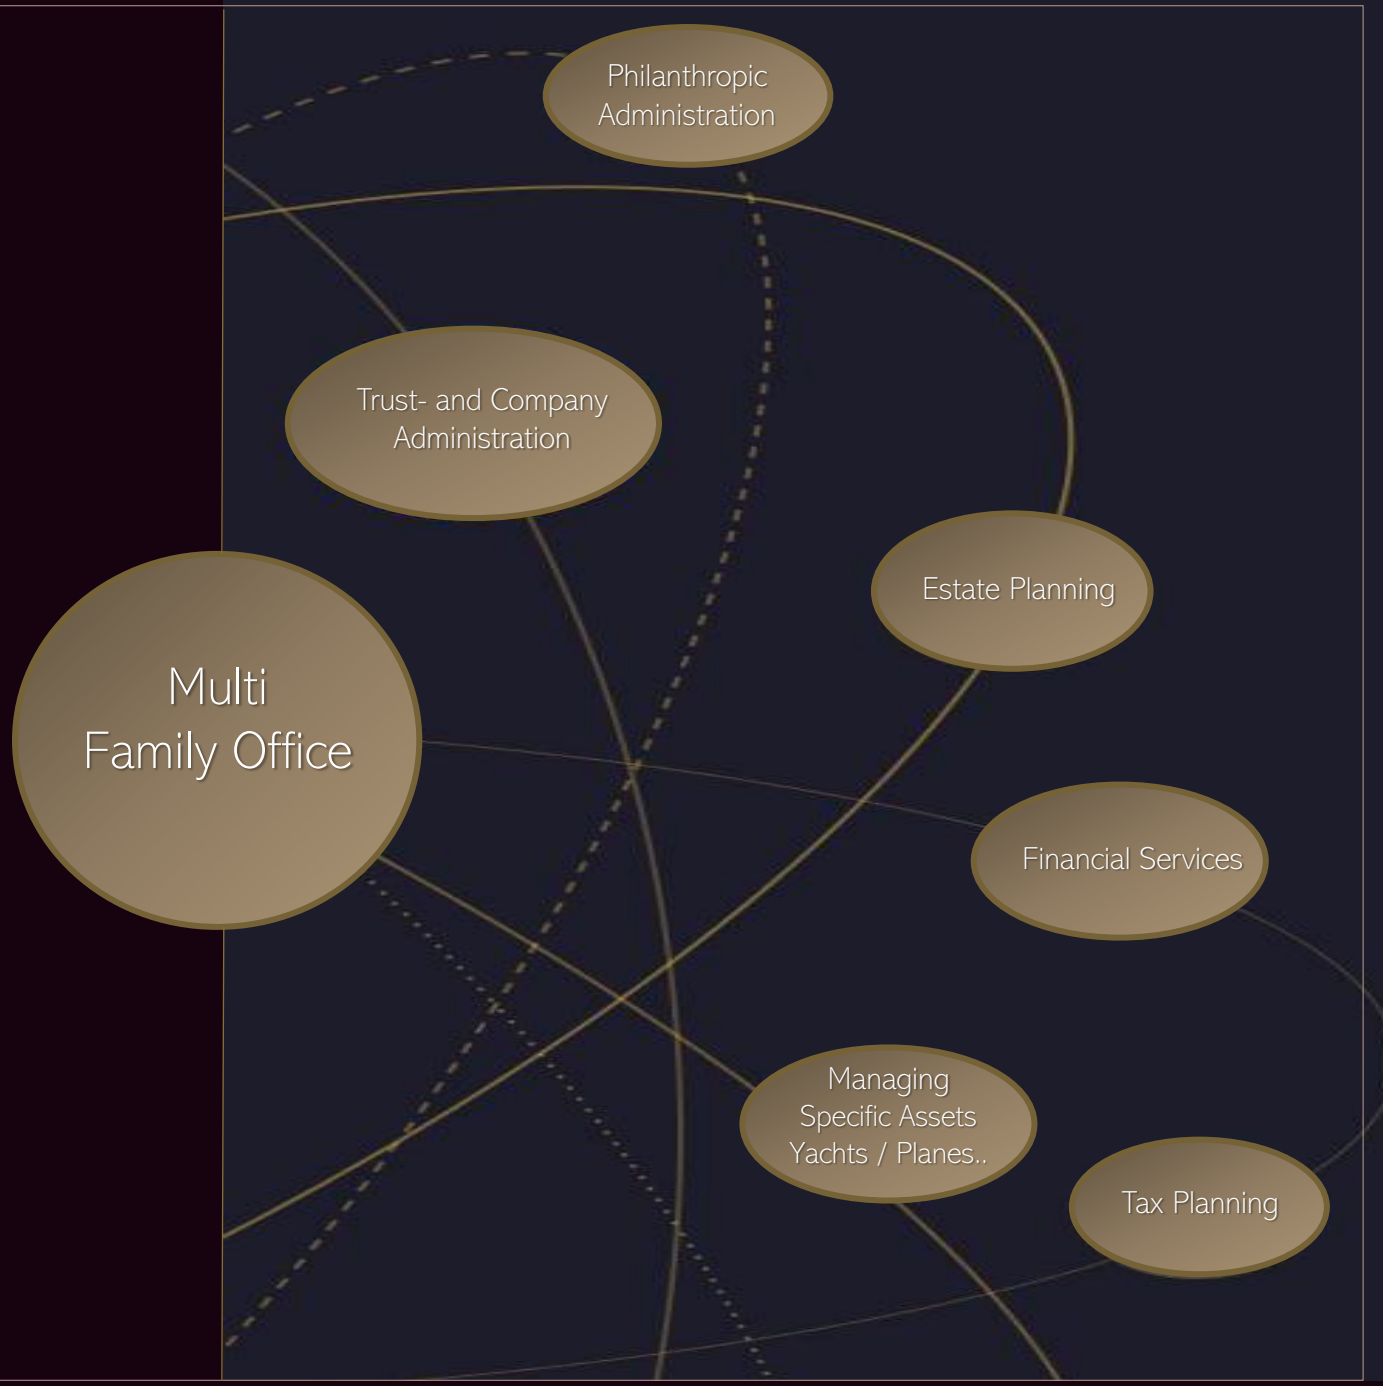

Securing Legacy through Philanthropy

Around the Regulatory World

What are Family Offices investing in?

What's new in Property?

The Future Family Office

Citizenship by Investment

With an increase of wealthy citizens in investing or buying property in exchange for citizenship or residency, commonly referred as “Citizenship by Investment” through the considerations and options in today’s dual citizenship market, we will also highlight some of them.

- EB 5 Investor Visa
- “Gold Card Visa”

KBA Royal Forum London - A Gathering of Brilliant Minds
Yesterday, I had the pleasure of attending another fantastic event at The Rubens at the Palace Hotel, Buckingham Palace, London. Hosted by Dr. Khalid B. Amar, the full day event was filled with engaging conversations, valuable insights, and meaningful connections. It's always inspiring to be in a room full of ambitious and forward-thinking individuals, sharing ideas and exploring collaborations. Events like these remind me of the power of networking, knowledge-sharing, and global connections. - February 2025

Honoured to Attend the KBA & Royal Forum!
What an incredible event at Rubens at the Palace Hotel, surrounded by philanthropists, investors, ambassadors, filmmakers, and industry leaders from across the globe.
Together with our COO, Richard Hughes, I had the privilege of speaking about Advances in Aesthetics and Dispelling Myths in Beauty & Wellness as a top UK & Germany provider. Humbled to receive an award for Best UK & Germany Beauty & Wellness Chain of Clinics - a testament to our incredible Vie Aesthetics & London Hill Medical team!
Thank you to KBA, the organisers, and everyone we met for such inspiring conversations. Exciting collaborations ahead - stay tuned! - February 2025

Some of our invited delegates, speakers and guests of honour

At the foot of the Atlas Mountains, Selman Marrakech, a palace of distinct, designed by Jacques Garcia Selman Marrakech seduces with its timeless harmony.

The property offers 55 rooms and suites and 5 private riads with a private swimming pool and butler service, meticulously executed. Selman Marrakech also feature the longest heatable swimming pool of 80m long, 3 restaurants, "Le Selman," a luxury fine dining with an international menu, "Le Pavillon," specializing in Mediterranean-inspired dishes with views of the hotel's Arabian horses and "Assyl", an authentic Moroccan restaurant.

Precious moments are embodied in the presence of the beautiful thoroughbred Arabian horses. There are views of the horses from the terraces and the gardens where one can admire the equine ballet.

Selman Marrakech's spa, Espace Vitalité Chenot is a tribute to oriental wellbeing. The Spa offers treatments using the specific and unique Chenot Method. Moments of pure grace add to the perfection of this timeless experience.
