*Terms And Conditions: Visit www.Lily.Global

*Ghostwriting Your Winner Book= This involves writing a book that sells you as a consultant, coach, speaker, or sells your consultancy service or whatever objective you aim to have. It aims to bring potential clients to your business by using the book as a lead generation tool. It aims to bring keynote speech engagements or whatever other objectives you have in mind.

*Winner Book Coaching Discovery Session (3 hours) = Coaching on creating your own unique branded system that can become your unique selling point and an asset for your business, as well as something that will make you stand out. This system you create will become the focal point on which this book will be written and the basis for your future workshops, online courses and other streams of income.

* Choosing Your Winner Topic = Our unique selling point is choosing the right topic with you out of the expertise you have that is in demand, part of your expertise, for the right audience, that people are willing to pay for, that can be turned into a business model. Some clients know exactly what they want; others hesitate between choosing different topics/expertise they have. The wrong topic will set you back thousands in years, time, money, prestige lost marketing it.

This also includes choosing the right angle. Our expertise includes choosing a winner topic that is going to work not only for a book, but as a business model so you can turn your book into multiple streams of income, into a workshop or online course. If you already got a book that isn't helping you sell consultancy/workshops/whatever product you want to sell, we can advise you which topic you should write so you can sell. The right winner title can enable you to create a successful business around it. The wrong one or an okay one without considering who can afford to pay for not only your book but mostly your consultation services or workshops will waste time, effort and years of your life plus money. The key thing is understanding how you can monetise your knowledge by repurposing the content.

* How To Choose Your Perfect Topic, Title & Chapters - Online Course = this course will help you choose the right topic for your book, the right title and the right chapters so you can differentiate yourself and leverage the book the most.

* Creating Your Branding Concept For You. Coaching You On Your Branding Colours & Branding Props For Your Book Cover. This includes coaching on:

- What branding elements you should include on cover

When u have your pictures taken for your speaker business, book cover, speaker website, you need a certain posture or facial expression

- Which branding image and branding message you should choose for your cover
- Which look you should have for your cover
- Which look u should have for your banner
- Which look you should have for your business card.

* Customised Branding Coaching For Your Winner Professional Photoshoot regarding what to wear for your photoshoot, for the speaker profile, for the speaker website, the way to dress/colours to wear, background to have when you speak, how you should pose, etc

* Personalised Branding Coaching During Your Winner Professional Photoshoot* = If you live in London, I will come with you to your professional photoshoot and coach you so that you get the right photos related to enhancing your personal brand and related to your topic. I will also direct the photographer so that he takes the photos I am looking for so that they look great for your book.

If you are not in London, I can give you some directions so that the photographer takes the right photos for your book cover, banner, business card, speaker website, speaker profile, that you can use for the next 10/20 years for your speaking gigs/speaker profile - the value includes Lily's personal time for one hour. The USP here is knowing how to take the winner photos you can repurpose for your speaker website, speaker profile & media kit, book cover/banner/business card. This does not include the cost of the actual photographer - only Lily's time.

*Designing Your Unique Branded Systems = I create your system(s) based on your ideas or you give me your system ideas and I turn it into your own graphic system.

*Two Winner Book Covers Designed = (we usually design many cover versions with small or large differences between them and then we choose the best two - you get to participate in the creative process). The book cover sizes need to be modified several times to fit the number of final pages. We will do the book's front cover, back cover, and the 3d version.

*Copywriting for Marketing Lead Generation Written For You Throughout The Book* = A lot of books are written without proper lead generation strategies, which means the author is missing out on getting potential clients, on getting booked for seminars, or for keynote speeches, or on doing the various things that are important to bring leads to their business. Also it is important to understand what the marketing strategies could be before you have this copywriting done. The good news is that I understand how to leverage copywriting in order to sell your upcoming products in the book and also I can give you various ideas on the possibilities for marketing yourself by repurposing the content from the book into multiple streams of income.

*Inserting 20 Images from our stock photography service* = We will suggest 20 images to include in your book. If you would like particular images from another stock photography service, please supply them to us at your cost and we will use them if they are in high resolution.

*Worldwide Branding Speaking Opportunities* = Become a testimonial for my book service and get 1 minute speaking stage time at one of our events. Based on availability, this could be possible on an ongoing basis. The more you implement and work on getting results, the more you are likely to get opportunities, but what I am promising is one opportunity for you to speak on stage for one minute about your book and the experience of working with me. This won't be possible if you ask me to create branding that doesn't make sense.

*Your Book Cover Travels with me Around the World In My Presentations = This means I will take your book image worldwide and include it in my presentations as a sample of what is possible to create with a book. This won't be possible if you ask me to create branding for the book which doesn't make sense.

You can keep 100% of the revenues you create yourself based on the book or the products around the book for all the opportunities you personally create for yourself. This does not include revenues you create at my events or with referrals from me.

*Book Promotion At My Events = You may be able to sell your books at booths offered at my events and we split 50/50 the profit for the books sold or the consultations/events/workshops/online courses/keynote speaking engagements or other products or services you sell at my events or upsell after the event. This book promotion at my events is based on when you are deemed ready, on event availability and suitability.

Outside of my events, you can sell your books, consultations etc anywhere else and you would not need to give me anything, unless I personally introduced you to someone who is buying your consultations, books, in which case you would need to give me 30% of profit for the revenue generated through my referrals.

In the event you get any revenue streams which lead to selling any of your products or services (at or after any of the below opportunities occurred) thanks to me or my partner Harry Sardinas such as : speaking opportunities at other events, book promotion events, book launches, keynote speaking opportunities, TV show appearances, radio appearances, introductions to other people who pay you money for your products, consultations, online courses, or your book being placed in the bookstores, you need to transfer me 30% of the profit for the revenue created as a result of me finding you those opportunities. You are not obliged to accept the opportunities and referrals I give you.

- 2) We work out title which can take 20 hours of our time
- 3) We come up with a branding concept/ your branding colours/ main concept and idea in the same initial 3 hours session - this may take more of our time - could be 20 hours.
- 4) You come for photoshoot which should be enough for the next 20 years of your author/speaker career. You can use my photographer or you can use yours but I recommend coming with you to guide him. If you live abroad you can use your own photographer and we can give you some guidelines. Please save your photos after receiving them from the photographer.
- 5) I select the book cover photograph and send it over for your approval - That takes me about 12 hours.
- 5.1 I create the book cover branding concept - that takes me about 20 to 50 hours.
- 5.2 We design book cover. That takes me about 50 hours. Only 2 versions will be provided for approval.

- 10.2 I create some graphics for your system to make it look fantastic
- 10.3 Send me some quotes to include in the book that are key learning points people should do to become the result you want them to achieve. Alternatively I can create them for you.
- 10.4 we format the quotes
- 10.5 send me any pictures you would like included in the book - they should be high quality pictures otherwise the book will be pixelated.
- 10.6 we can design an advert for your business to include at the end of the book - where we can include some sort of call to action so that the book becomes a lead magnet for people to contact you on your website. Here you would need to give us your website address with an optin page where people could get perhaps a ticket to your event, a freebie, something that would enable you to create a list of interested people in your products. If you don't have one specifically for this business, we can do a website for you - not included in this offer. You can speak to me about it perhaps once the book is almost ready?
- 11) I write your book
- 12) I need your author description. I will rewrite the author description if you want to make it more exciting.

- 17) My partner Harry Sardinas can write a foreword for your book endorsing you.
- 18) I need 3 testimonials from 3 reputable people to include in back cover. I can find these for you.
- 18.1 We work on formatting the book to make it look phenomenal - making it visually enticing, with learning points, key things to remember, icons for stories, including various pictures
- 19) I send it for your approval. Only minor revisions shall be done if required. You have however access to the document at all times so you are able to make changes in the text as you wish.
- 20) Only the number of words mentioned in the offer is included in this offer. Any extra pages will be paid on a prorata basis. Any extra pages will be paid on a rate of 5000 words for 5000 pounds.
- 20.1) You are responsible to give me most of the information for this book. I will interview you and I will write and develop your ideas, but you need to give me most of the ideas in the book. This book programme does not include research for writing the book. It is mainly your ideas.
- 21) I send it to my editor or you send it to your editor. When you are ready to have the book published, you can send me the approved file. You are responsible for giving me the correct approved version of the book.

- 22) You pay the editor directly. Normally she charges me approx 100 to 350 pounds per book which includes editing, spell check, grammar check and also formatting for print, formatting images and formatting for amazon.
- 22.1) Once the book has been edited, we will publish it as it is. If you keep adding content multiple times after the book has been edited, you will need to get the book edited again or have the book printed as it is.
- 23) I print one soft copy of your book at your cost and give you logins for reprints for you to order at your own cost. I normally pay 2 pounds per black and white copy - just as an example - plus delivery.
- 24) I publish it in amazon for you in all countries at the price you would like. Amazon keeps 30% if price is below 2.99 usd and 70% if price is above that - at the time of writing this.
- 24.1) The book will appear as "self - published" by you and printed by amazon. I will not be involved in printing it, delivering it, ordering it - except for the initial publishing setup with the initial price you would like.
- 24.2) some "become a bestseller" strategies involve reducing the price temporarily in order to launch the book sales. This programme does not include changes of price on amazon, launching your book, etc. This programme involves the creation of a great book mainly. See the details for all that is offered above. Other separate programmes we have involve the monetisation of the book. You are able to change the price of your book yourself with the logins provided.
- 25) If you want a hard copy of your book - I can create one copy for you with your payment details, based on you paying for the ISBN and also for all the copies of hard cover books. No hard cover book will be offered under this offer. There will be an extra charge of 1000 pounds for doing the hard cover copy. Any other copies will be ordered by you directly with logins provided.
- 25.1 If you want me to keep reordering books for you I can do it but it will cost 100 pounds for every reordering. For any issues with reordering, delivery of the books, logging into amazon, you are responsible for calling amazon and sorting it out with them.
- 26) No refunds will be given once the work has started on any of your artwork.
- 27) In the event you do not like the book covers, artwork or book no refunds will be given.
- 28) It is your responsibility for the photoshoot, to wear suitable clothes in line with the branding advice given. No refunds will be given for not liking your personal photos or for not liking the designs.
- 29) I will be able to use your book cover and any art work I produce for marketing my services, and if you change your branding afterwards, I will still be able to use the artwork I produced for you even if your branding changed afterwards in order to show samples of what I can produce.
- 30) The publishing of your book on amazon will be done one time only in black and white after you have approved the book for publishing. The publishing of your book in print will be done one time only in black and white, after you approved the book to be printed. If you would like modifications to be done after having the book approved by you, alternative designers hired by you will be required as I am not able to do further maintenance and changes with regards to your branding, your book or your personal branding unless we mutually agree further payment for the extra work involved.
- 30.1) Once you have approved the book to be printed, and you discover things you would like to change or errors in the printing after the book was approved by you, then we charge £500 for publishing the book again as it needs to be reformatted again.
- 31) I will add a list of "recommended books by Brand For Speakers" on the last pages of your book.
- 32) I will add an advert for 'Want To Be An Author? - Brand For Speakers - on the last pages of your book.
